SCHOOL ADVISORY COUNCIL

MEETING SUMMARY

1. Call to Order

The Chair opened the meeting at 6:30 P.M.

2. Reports

2.1 Principal

- Publication Provided: Park West School Report October 21, 2020 (see attached)

2.2 Student Representatives

- 2.3 Grade 7: Everything has been going good, Students are sanitizing hands and wearing masks. Some teachers are taking them out and all students are liking that.
- 2.4 Grade 8: Students are mostly doing good. Everyone knows and understands the seriousness of COVID19. Major difference is they are not allowed to interact with other class. Students are sanitizing and washing hands a lot.
- 2.5 Grade 9: There have been a few new kids, and everyone welcomed the new students. New interactive ways are being used within the class. Students like going outside during classes. COVID19 – students understand the seriousness and all wear masks and sanitize hands. All are getting used to new normal. Social distancing is a little hard to get used to and students are working hard to remember to maintain the social distance.

MEETING SUMMARY

3. New Business

- 3.1. Parent Nominee Election Results – Sheetal Ajay was elected for a second term as the Parent Rep.
- 3.2. Election of SAC Chair and Secretary – Glenn nominated Karen for the position of the Chair and Sheetal seconded this nomination. Sheetal has volunteered to serve as the Secretary.
- 3.3. Ideas for SAC Grant Spending – PWS has a shortage of Chromebooks and that was the most urgent need. SAC has recommended funds from the school year 2020-21 be used towards the purchase of Chromebooks.

4. School Success Plan Update

- SSP has a small budget, however this year these funds cannot be used for substitutes this year. Received approval to use SSP funds for the purchase of Chromebooks.
- This year there will not be a written report for SSP and there is no mandate to collect data to provide SSP report to the board.
- This year a wellness goal was added to the SSP.

5. New Items

- Mr. Carter to provide on an update on the leftover SAC funds from 2019-20 during November 2020 meeting.
